

How to Register for the Portal (Residents)

You must register for the online portal to access our agency's digital services. Once you register, you can submit recertification packets online, apply to open waiting lists, or submit requests to our agency through the portal.

NOTE: You must have an email address to register for the portal. This email address will be used to send you verification codes to log in to your account. If you do not already have an active email address, create a new email account before registering for the portal.

To get started, open our agency's login page and select Click here to register.

Why do I need a registration code? Your registration code links your portal account with your resident record in our system. If you received a notification from our agency, your registration code is listed on that notice. If you need help finding your registration code, contact us.

Next, complete the registration screen and click Register.

Please contact the leasing office if you don't know your registration code.
